Plaintiff,

Case No. C 07-2928 JSW

PLAINTIFF'S RESPONSE TO DEFENDANT'S REQUEST FOR FORTY-
FIVE-DAY EXTENTION, AND REQUEST THAT THE MOTION SHOULD BE CONTINUED

v

BEN CURRY, et al.
Defendants,

The plaintiff has received the defendant's "Request for extension of time, and would like the to argue that the motion should be continued until the completion of discovery so that there is an opportunity to obtain responsive evidence, such as an answer to interrogatories. The plaintiff would have requested that this should have occurred prior to the "first sixty-day extension, but as is the defendants way, they waited until the motion was accepted and passed, before the plaintiff was notified. As this motion shows, the defendants sent the plaintiff's copy to the wrong address, even though the plaintiff notified them of the address change on April 15, 2008, when it occurred. It should also be noted that the plaintiff is in the defendants custody, therefore sending notifications "accidentally to the wrong address" to limit plaintiff's response time should never occur.

Plaintiff would also like to remind the court that this case involves a medical matter concerning Plaintiff's health. That the Plaintiff has a "Life threatening and changing health condition,(Chronic Lymphocytic Leukemia) from which the defendants have withheld a Medical Prescribed Diet, "deliberately" from which the top experts in the field concur, "That the highest probable liklihood from a cure is to be found." (The Human body ~~which manufactors the immuno-globins from the diet~~ of meat, many of which cannot be synthesized any other way.

The Plaintiff has suffered for years from this disadvantage, even the the medical records show "The specialist the State pays to monitor, diagnose and recommend treatment, did so as long age as 2002. The "deliberate indifference" continues to restrict the plaintiff from the best possible means of available health simply from the 'mean-spirited arrogant' stand the defendants have taken, "simply because they can," and the Court is standing by while the very possible demising of the plaintiff's health continues.

The Plaintiff prays the Court takes notice that this is a serious and real medical condition, bought on by defendants by the lack of proper sewage drainage in the cell-blocks, and the slow response to cut the water off at times of the occurances which flooded Plaintiff's, and other inmate's cells. There are "No sufficient documents for the Defendants to gather." The entire curriculum of events is 'fully out-lined' in the Plaintiff's pleading as the Defendant's well know. What they are waiting on is the Plaintiff to go "into crisis" and the suit discontinued.

Dated: May 6,2008

Respectfully submitted.
